

I am appalled that a company that gets to use the public airwaves without charge is allowed to broadcast the type of partisan programming that smells more like a paid ad. -- But of course, it is a paid ad: This is the way that Sinclair is able to pay the Administration for future political favors.

This practice is unfair and should be stopped immediately.

Thank you,
Sarena Neyman